

Parent's Guide to QuickSchools

1. You will receive an email invitation to join QuickSchools. Click on the link under the password & log in, then change the password.
2. You will be brought to your student's information page. Please check to make sure that your child's information is correct.
3. On Quickschools you will be able to check your child's grades, see their homework assignments, check your bill, communicate with teachers etc.
4. There is an app! Once you've logged in using the email you can download the app "Home by Quickschools"-- use your email & password to log into the app. The subdomain is pbc. There you can quickly see your child's grades, homework assignments, attendance record, send & receive messages from the teachers, & other parents.
5. The middle grade and high school students will also have an email invitation sent to them, so that they can have access to the same information. There is also a class discussion section that a teacher may use for further class notes.

It is vitally important that the family be involved with what is happening at school, & Quickschools is a great tool to help foster that relationship.
